

Targeting education

Contributed photograph

The Boulder Junction Shooting Range has funded a $1,000 scholarship with Lakeland Union High School. The funds will be awarded to a deserving LUHS graduate planning to continue his or her education in fields relating to natural resources conservation. LUHS Principal Jim Bouché (left) and scholarship coordinator Deb Hanson (center) accept the donation from Jim Hornbrook, vice president of the Boulder Junction Shooting Range.